Commissioner Hall declares there are announcements for the public. Commissioner Arnold and Hall discuss the attendance of Tina Pickett at the Township Meeting and that Tina has published a Consumer Complaint Form for the public to file complaints with her office on utility companies. This form will be available on the county website, in the courthouse lobby, as well as varying locations around the county. Commissioners urge the public to complete and submit these forms within the next one to two weeks for Tina Pickett to have for her hearing with PUC against Frontier Internet. Commissioner Hall also adds that there will be a closed door, invite only, meeting with Representative Fritz and PUC about the electric companies and the outages that have been occurring in Susquehanna County. Commissioner Hall announced that Commissioner Arnold met with 4-H volunteers and the State 4-H officials in State College to discuss ongoing issues and lack of attention to the 4-H Program as well as the 4-H Educator position that has been vacant for months. Hall also adds that there will be a meeting with the Penn State Client Relations Manager next week to discuss these issues further as Penn State is not serving the 4-H Program as they should.
